

WHOLF WINS IN LAST TWO FALLS

BUT GIHA GETS FIRST FALL LAST NIGHT.

FIRST MATCH A DRAW

O'Banion and Messmer Give Good Exhibition—Legion Negotiating For Another Bout.

Dick Wholf, middleweight champion of Missouri, retained his title in a match last night at the State Teachers College with Roger Giha, a young Syrian. Giha won the first fall but Wholf came back strong and took the second and the final fall.

The match, promoted by the James Edward Gray Post, American Legion, was the successful start of what may be a series of good matches to be held here within the next few months. A good sized crowd witnessed the match.

In the preliminaries "Big Horse" Messmer of the Teachers College and "Bun" O'Banion of the Maryville High School went to a draw, wrestling under amateur rules. This match, although not participated in by professionals, attracted no little interest and furnished a pleasing curtain raiser to the main go.

In the main event the two wrestlers started in from the first with speedy, classy grappling. They went to the mat in a hurry and the fans were given a real exhibition of work on the mat. The first fall went to Giha after thirty-three minutes and thirty-five seconds of wrestling. He pinned Wholf to the mat with a body scissors and a head lock.

After the fifteen minutes of rest the men went to it again, this time battling for eighteen minutes and thirty seconds before Wholf won the fall with a head lock and a bar arm lock.

Wholf won the third fall in twenty-one minutes and forty-five seconds with a body scissors and a double bar arm lock. In this time he subjected Giha to a great deal of punishment, which the Syrian took in an admirable manner. At one time Wholf had a head scissors and a hammer lock on Giha and it looked like the fall was won but somehow the black headed grappler wiggled out of the hold.

It took four successive punishment holds to win the final fall. Wholf had the advantage at the last and as soon as Giha would break one hold he would be pulled into another.

In all the men wrestled one hour, thirteen minutes and fifty seconds.

The crowd last night was a good one. They were generous in their applause of both men when a hold would be broken or one gained, and they were courteous. There was no smoking and loud and abusive language was also foreign.

Wholf and Giha both said that the crowd was the best that they had ever experienced.

Between the first and second falls Johnny Bass a welter from Lincoln, issued a challenge to the winner of the last night's match. This challenge was accepted by both men. Bass appearing in the ring, made a statement concerning his match in Hopkins Saturday night with "Jigger" Bock, in which he stated that Bock outweighed him forty pounds but that he threw him with ease and consequently would meet any comers.

Before the preliminary last night the class in gymnastics at the College gave an exhibition of high diving, in which Charles Carr dived over the string at a height of six feet and two inches.

Both matches were refereed by E. A. Maynor, the coach at the College. The officiating was very acceptable both from the standpoint of the crowd and of the wrestlers. Both men stated that Maynor was one of the best referees that they had ever worked under.

The next match that will be promoted by the Legion will probably be two weeks from last night and will be between Wholf and Davis, the middle weight champion of Kansas, if plans now under way go through. About a week ago Davis informed one of the local legion promoters that he would seriously consider a match with the winner of the Wholf-Giha match and this morning the legionnaires informed him as to the outcome of the match and asked for his decision.

The match between Bass and Wholf will have to come later as the dealing with Davis was already under way before the challenge issued by Bass last night.

School Film Dates Cancelled 2 Weeks

Dr. C. P. Fryer, County Health Officer, Considers Its Inadvisable To Hold Meetings.

"The flu and grip epidemic is getting better in Nodaway County," said Dr. C. P. Fryer, county health officer this morning in discussing the prevalence of sickness. But Dr. Fryer is of the opinion that all unnecessary group meetings and community gatherings should not be held for at least two weeks longer.

In view of this fact Geo. A. Pickens, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has cancelled all film dates for the showing of Nodaway County's agricultural films and school films for the next two weeks. Dr. Fryer thought it inadvisable to hold these meetings in schoolhouses, because big crowds are usually present in small rooms.

Mrs. Judy, 92 Years Old, Died Today

For a Number of Years She Conducted Ten Mile House, South of Maryville.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bradley Judy, a pioneer resident of Nodaway county, died at 8:15 o'clock this morning at her home, 510 North Fillmore Street, following a ten days' illness of influenza. She was born January 7, 1831, in Howard county, Mo., and came to Nodaway county in 1862. She had lived in this county continuously since that time.

She was married to George W. Bradley at Fayette, Mo. For a number of years they conducted the ten mile house south of Maryville, before the railroad invaded the county. Mr. Bradley died in 1900 and three years later she married Robert T. Judy, who died several years ago. She is survived by four children by the first marriage. They are James Bradley of New Mexico, Gabe Bradley, living at home, Mrs. Ed Masters of Maryville and Jesse Bradley of West Plains, Mo. Five children are dead. Mrs. Judy was proprietor of the Bradley House located at 304 West Third Street for many years.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

Y. M. and Y. W. Have College Programs

Girls Meet In a Recreation Hour and Boys Hear Reports of Columbia Convention.

A recreation hour was held this morning by the Y. W. C. A. at the State Teachers College. The executive committee of the Y. W., realizing that the winter quarter was drawing to a close and that the girls at the College were overworked and studying hard for examinations, decided that the recreation hour was necessary.

Misses Ruth Cline and Lethel Garten had charge of the hour and a number of games and contests were held in the women's gymnasium at the College.

The program included a Siamese yell, a game of jumping the slipper, shouting proverbs, the run, hop and jump relay, London bridge, freight train tag, and a paper relay.

The following program was given at the regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at the State Teachers College this morning:

Songs. Scripture reading—Orville Suetterlin. Prayer.

Solo—Price Doyle. Report from the Convention in Columbia—Dick Runyan and Jason Kemp.

The meeting was held in the classroom of Harry A. Miller, head of the department of public speaking.

A novel plan will be worked out for the next meeting of the Y. M. C. A. for next Tuesday. Each member will take the initials of his name and with these initials make a slogan for the Y. M. C. A. In addition of this will be popular singing led by Price Doyle.

Quarantine on Dogs Lifted in Orrsburg

Wolves Are Reported to be Getting Thicker in That Community Since Dogs Have Been In

The quarantine proclamation to kill or impound every dog in the Orrsburg community has been lifted by the county court as the sixty days period has expired. The proclamation was issued on December 15 and was made necessary on account of rabies being prevalent among dogs, horses and hogs.

Several of the farmers in the Orrsburg community have been anxious to have the quarantine lifted so as their dogs could chase the wolves which have been seen in that neighborhood.

The quarantine in several other school districts is also expected to be lifted soon.

CHICAGO ELECTION BRINGS VIOLENCE

AN ALDERMANIC WORKER IS FIRED ON.

FIVE RUNNING FOR MAYOR

Primary Today Brings Trouble Reports To Police—Fraud and Ballot Theft Reported.

Chicago, Feb. 27—Violence from three points after the opening of the polls today in the primary election here, were reported to the police. Gunmen in an auto fired upon Joe Kelly, worker for an aldermanic candidate, but failed to hit him. A gang of workers was reported to have taken possession of the seventeenth ward polls and refused to go. In the second ward it was reported that fraud and ballot theft was contemplated. A mayor, alderman and other city officials are being selected in the primaries.

Five candidates for mayor are in the field, Judge William E. Dever, the Democratic choice without opposition, and Arthur C. Lueder, postmaster; Edward R. Litsinger, attorney; Municipal Judge Bernard P. Barasa, running on a liberal platform, and Arthur M. Millard, president of the Masonic bureau of service, Republican, candidates.

The withdrawal of Mayor Thompson, who has served two terms, has left much of his support without a definite candidate but it is generally believed that many Thompson workers are behind Mr. Litsinger. Postmaster Lueder is the choice, however of the accredited leaders of the principal Republican factions.

Feared Accusation; Man Shoots Himself

Was Afraid He Would Be Blamed For Death of Mrs. Viola Staley. Found Shot.

Woodbury, N. J., Feb. 27—With flames burning the bungalow, which had been their trysting place discovered early today, the body of Mrs. Viola Staley of Philadelphia with a bullet through her head, and Harry Moll, also of Philadelphia, were found with a bullet wound in the right temple.

Moll told police that Mrs. Staley killed herself in bed, that the bedding caught fire and that he shot himself for fear he would be held for the woman's death.

The woman's body was found near the burning building on Mantau Creek. Moll was found in the glass enclosed part of the boathouse on the opposite side of the creek. The couple came from Philadelphia last night, Moll said.

Moll is in a serious condition here in a hospital. Officials believe that Mrs. Staley was shot about 11 p. m. An autopsy over the dead woman's body will be made late today. Shortly after the woman was found Moll was seen making his way across the creek. His wound was bleeding profusely. He said that he was married and had two children in Philadelphia. Mrs. Staley has a small daughter.

Harding For 1924 Declares Creager

Texas Republican State Chairman Says Harding Will Undoubtedly Be G. O. P. Nominee

Kansas City, Feb. 27—President Harding will undoubtedly be the Republican nominee for president in 1924, R. B. Creager, Republican state chairman of Texas, and close personal friend of Harding declared here today. He is fresh from a several weeks stay in Washington.

Ninety percent of the rural leaders agree that they must stand or fall in 1924 on Harding's record, and they believe that he can win. In 1924 the voters will have a better perspective of the achievements of the present administration.

M. E. Sunday School to Discuss Easter Plans

Plans for the Easter program and for Decision Day at the First M. E. Church will be made tomorrow night at the regular meeting of the Sunday School board. The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the church with Dr. C. C. James presiding. Different plans for the Easter observance will be taken up and the program for the Sunday School decided upon. C. C. Leeson is superintendent of the Sunday School.

New Films Booked For Union Grove

Roy Kinnaird Will Show Films Tomorrow Night At Community Meeting.

County agent, Roy A. Kinnaird, will go to the community meeting at Union Grove tomorrow night and show two pictures of interest to farmers. The first picture will be the hog worm film of the United States government. The second one will be a new film entitled, "Texas Trail To Your Table." It is a film produced by Swift and Company and shows livestock industry from the Texas range to the finished meat set upon the table.

Friday night Mr. Kinnaird will show these films at Gaynor. The pictures will be shown in connection with a meeting of breeders in the northwest part of the county to arrange for a purebred livestock sale there sometime in the spring.

BASEBALL NEXT ON S. T. C. SPORT BILL

EIGHT INTERCOLLEGIATE GAMES BOOKED

WON'T NEGLECT TRACK

Two Sports Will Be Carried On With Games And Meets Alternating Says Maynor.

The bases loaded, the second tied, two out, two strikes and three balls on the batter, the pitcher winds up—Such a situation as this may exist in Maryville this Spring. The only way that such a situation could arise would be for a baseball game to be played and to play a game, two teams are assured. If these teams are college teams and if the game is played in Maryville one would generally surmise that one of the teams would be a Maryville and as there is but one college in Maryville—

You guessed it the first time. The State Teachers College will have a baseball team. From the pre-season dope it should be a good one.

Coach Maynor of the College is all enthusiastic. It looks like he will have a good team. Men of promise will be in school this Spring. For instance he will have on the mound Dixon, well known to local fans as a hurler of repute or Jerome, a pitcher from Darlington, who will be in school.

Behind the bat, receiving the deliveries of whoever pitches, Maynor will have Tommy Tobin. Everybody knows Tobin and everybody knows what a valuable man he is because of his catching and because of his hitting.

Sims, a vocational student, who will be here next quarter, is, according to Maynor, a "jam-up" second baseman. And then there is "Hickory" Leech at short.

In the field Maynor could well place Steiger, Egley and Waller, all now enrolled in school. All of these men are clever fielders and they all can hit the pellet.

These are just a few of the many, however. There will doubtless be others in schools who may win a berth on the team.

Eight intercollegiate games have already been scheduled although the dates have not been definitely decided upon. Four games will be played at Maryville and four away from home. The teams with whom two games have been matched are Tarkio, Missouri Wesleyan, Missouri Valley, and William Jewell. Two games will likely be scheduled with Central College of Fayette.

Coach Maynor will combine his baseball and track this year so that a meet or a game will be played in Maryville each week. Four track meets have already been scheduled. They are with Tarkio, Missouri Wesleyan, William Jewell and the M. I. A. A meet which will be held at Tarkio. Practice in both baseball and track will start in earnest next Monday. Maynor will work his track men out a little earlier in the afternoon than the baseball men and in this manner he will be able to devote the required time to both sports.

The diamond at the College will have to be worked over and Coach Maynor said that this would require some little labor.

Complete baseball outfits have been ordered for twelve men. These should arrive in Maryville within the next few days.

E. Stevenson, Nodaway county, sold a load of 619-lb. helters at $7.25 on the St. Joseph stock yards Monday.

HARDING DECIDES ON CABINET SHIFTS

DR. WORK AND SEN. NEW FIGURE IN CHANGES

NOMINATIONS TO SENATE

Work Become Interior Secretary and New Will Head P. O. Department

Washington, Feb. 27—President Harding today shifted Dr. Hubert Work from the Post Office department to the Interior Department, and nominated Senator Harry S. New to succeed as postmaster-general.

The nominations were sent to the senate this afternoon and immediate confirmation is expected. The change is expected March 4 when Albert B. Fall retires as secretary of Interior. Notice of this change was announced exclusively February 1 by International News Service.

The appointment of Senator New as postmaster-general and the shifting of Dr. Work to the Interior Department brings an end to a series of political rows that gave considerable embarrassment to Harding, since the proposed changes have been announced in public.

The Republican element in Indiana identified with Beveridge in the primary, protested to New's appointment to the cabinet, and Representative Wood, Republican of Indiana made two trips to the White House to protest against the New appointment. He declared it would wreck the "party" in Indiana.

Friends of New rallied strongly to his support and his nomination now brings an end to the political bickering for the past four weeks. Senator New was offered two posts in the cabinet prior to Harding's inauguration but he preferred to continue in the Senate.

Dr. Work is a native of Colorado, a former national Republican committeeman, and served as assistant postmaster-general under Will Hays. When Hays retired Work was elevated to the postmaster-generalship and served for one year. It is understood that his selection is approved in the western states, who demanded a western man for secretary of the Interior.

Senator New, who is to be the new cabinet member, is one of the picturesque figures of the senate. He was defeated for renomination in the Indiana primaries last year by ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, who in turn lost the election fight to ex-Governor Samuel Ralston, Democrat. The bitterness of the New-Beveridge fight carried over into the cabinet considerations, foes of New charging that he had "laid down" on Beveridge. New is the closest personal friend President Harding has in the senate. He was the real "original" Harding-for-President senator. After Harding's nomination Senator New took charge of the Chicago headquarters in the campaign.

New has figured long in Republican politics, Indiana and national, being prominent in the 1912 Taft-Roosevelt struggles on the side of Mr. Taft.

President Harding Has Eyes Examined

Washington, Feb. 27—President Harding today submitted to a complete examination of his eyes by Dr. H. C. Wilmer, well-known Washington specialist. It was said that the President's eyes had been bothering him considerably of recent weeks and today's examination is the result of the trouble.

20 Years to Life For Woman Murderer

New York, Feb. 27—Mrs. Lillian S. Raison was sentenced today from twenty years to life imprisonment for the murder of Dr. A. B. Glickstein, prominent Brooklyn physician. She was convicted on a second degree murder charge. A request by Albert Conway, Mrs. Raison's attorney, to set aside the verdict, was refused on the strength of the evidence submitted.

When the sentence was pronounced Mrs. Raison did not break down but was visibly paler and fastened her eyes on some object straight ahead.

Mrs. C. Brady of Kansas City, a former resident of Maryville and Nodaway county for thirty-five years, has been visiting Mrs. William Donahue, Mrs. M. Heffern, and other friends in Maryville since last Saturday night.

H. S. Girls' Gym. Class and History Club Meet

Girls Are Planning to Enter Track Meet—History Clubs See American Scene Slides

The girls gym class of the high school had a fine workout this morning, and also last week, according to Mrs. Verne Manley, the instructor. The girls are getting their drills and exercises worked up into good shape. Many of the girls are anxious to begin practicing for the track meet. This is outside work and cannot be done during the gym class period. This is the first year that a track meet for girls has been offered, and it is expected that many will enter the meet. A good number of girls now belonging to the basketball team and the gym class will come out to prepare for the track meet.

The History Club had a meeting this morning. Richard Baker showed some slides of famous American scenery and buildings.

Contestants' Coaches Are Named by Ziegler

Different Teachers Will Coach High School Students Entering Spring Contests

Supt. L. E. Ziegler of the High School has selected the instructors who will have charge of the students entering the different spring contests at the College. There are so many contests that an instructor has been picked for each line of work. The teachers will coach the students, who try out, and those who will represent the High School in the events.

H. G. Tilley has been picked to instruct the contestants that will enter the agriculture contests. The home economics girls will be coached by Miss Elizabeth Leet and Miss Katherine Carpenter. Miss Alma Lucas will have charge of the dramatics, and Miss Laura Hawkins and Miss Frances Holiday will coach those who enter the reading and public speaking, or essay contests. Miss Bertha Northcutt has charge of the fine arts events contestants, and Miss Lucile Airy, of the type writing and shorthand.

Loren Schnabel and Mrs. L. L. St. Clair have been directing the musicians and will continue to do so. Each school is limited to a certain number of contestants and Maryville will certainly have their quota.

Flumonia Fatal to William I. Skidmore

Prominent Skidmore Citizen Had Been Ill Ten Days—Funeral Services Tomorrow.

William I. Skidmore, a prominent resident of Skidmore, vicinity died at 4:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon following a ten days' illness of flumonia. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence, conducted by the Rev. J. J. Cokely, pastor of the Methodist Church in Skidmore. Burial will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Skidmore was born September 1, 1857, in Hamilton county, Ohio, and came to Nodaway county with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Marteny Skidmore, in 1865. He had resided in Skidmore since that time. He completed his education at Amity College, College Springs, Iowa. On March 20, 1909, he married Miss Margaret Haines of Philadelphia, who survives. One son, William Jessup, Jr., eighteen years old, also survives.

In 1880 Mr. Skidmore's father planted the town which now bears his name, and in July of that year the first lots were sold. When on a jury at Maryville a number of years ago Mr. Skidmore was asked the question, "What is your occupation?" To his reply that he had several, he was asked what they were, and he replied, "I am a banker for honor, run a newspaper for fun, and raise pumpkins for profit." He was one of the founders of the former Skidmore Standard the name of which was later changed to New Era. The paper is now operated under the name of Skidmore News. He was chairman of the board which is in charge of the building of a drainage ditch running west of Skidmore the contract for which was recently let. Mrs. M. A. Sewell of Skidmore is the only surviving sister.

ANNA MCCARGILL DIES SUDDENLY LAST NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ferritor received word today of the death of Miss Anna McCargill of Imogene, Ia., which occurred suddenly last night. She was well known in Maryville having made frequent visits at the Ferritor home. Her last visit here was last summer. Mrs. Ferritor and daughter, Miss funeral which probably will be held Grace Ferritor, expect to attend the Thursday morning.

FINE AND SENTENCE FOR GERMAN MAYOR

ONE YEAR IN PRISON AND 10 MILLION MARK FINE

"RED" PAPER SUPPRESSED

First Communist Paper to be Silenced By the French—Mayence Railway Station Burned

Essen, Feb. 27—The mayor of Wette today was sentenced to one year in prison and to pay a fine of 10 million marks. The sentence was imposed upon the city head by the French military court.

The French today suppressed a communist newspaper. This is the first "Red" newspaper to be silenced by the French in the occupied zone. French troops with machine guns stormed and broke up a meeting today of the Germans' Housewives League.

Word Received of Death of W. W. Glass

Was Living in Denver, But Had Lived in Nodaway County and Maryville Many Years.

Word has been received of the death of Wesley W. Glass of Denver, Colo., a former resident of Maryville and Nodaway county for a number of years. According to the message from Mr. Glass' son-in-law, Arthur B. Condon, his death occurred Sunday night following an illness of uremic poisoning. One son, Milan C. Glass, is buried in Miriam cemetery in Maryville and Mr. Glass' body will probably be brought here for burial.

He was born in Hancock county, Illinois, January 4, 1850, where he grew to maturity on the home farm. He taught school during the winter months for several years, farming in the summer, remaining at home until he was thirty years old. He then turned his attention to merchandising at Burnside, Illinois, at which place he was also postmaster, and was thus engaged for two years.

Abandoning the mercantile business he returned to the farm and continued there until 1883, when he sold out and came to Nodaway county, buying a farm ten miles southeast of Maryville. There he lived for twenty years, then sold that place and bought a farm two miles north of Maryville, where he lived for two years, then sold out and moved to Maryville. He spent some time traveling in the west and promiscuous trading in Maryville. In 1903 he engaged in the real estate business with Austin L. Nash, which he continued, with the exception of three years, to 1913.

Mr. Glass married on October 12, 1879, Hulda E. McMillen, a sister of C. G. McMillen of Pickering. Besides his widow he is survived by two children, Mrs. Arthur B. Condon of Denver, Colo., and Claude W. Glass of Hot Springs, Colo. Four grandchildren, Ethel Martha, George William and Jimmie Condon and George Curtis Glass, also survive. The latter grandson was born last Friday night. Mr. Glass belonged to the First Christian Church in Maryville of which he was an elder, having performed the duties of that office for a period of more than twenty-five years. He also served as deacon for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Glass built the residence at 217 East Seventh street, which is now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyle.

Dr. Keller to Judge a St. Joseph Debate

Dr. Fred Keller of the College will go to St. Joseph a week from Friday night to judge a debate between the St. Joseph Junior College and the Kansas City Junior College. The subject of the debate will be resolved that the United States should adopt the cabinet parliamentary form of government.

Dr. Keller has also booked nine dates for commencement addresses to be given in May.

Forumettes

Going down hill always is easy but the rub comes when you try to climb up again.

It is wrong to say a woman can't keep a secret. Did you ever know one who would tell her age or her weight.

Have you glanced ahead to March which comes in (like a lion we are told) Thursday. If you haven't we will inform you that it has five pay days.

Now we know times have changed. We had the opportunity of visiting a country general store not so long ago and there were no loafers sitting about the stove, chewing tobacco, stealing the crackers, whittling or solving the country's problems as the comic fellows have always been making us believe. In fact there was no stove in the store as it was heated with one of those cute little trick heating systems with the furnace right in the back part of the room like a stove and the pipes running all over the place just like we see advertised in the magazines. Surely, brother, the world does move.

Uncle Abner, says the troubles of the other fellow always seem trivial until we encounter the same ones ourselves.

Home to a lot of people seems to be where the latest films are exhibited or the latest jazz is played.

"Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today." Judging from the way some local flappers dress there usually is nothing left to take off tomorrow.

"I no sooner get a nice little mustache started until the fashion changes and they are passe" we heard a Maryville sheik wail the other day.

Louise, the stenographer, says the only reason the average person does not like to hear other people's troubles is because it does not give him time to tell about his own.

A lot of people who are too cowardly to look another in the eye call him up on the telephone.

While we have banished every thing in our daily life which is unsanitary we seem to have overlooked the feather duster.

Former Maryville Resident Achieves Engineering Success at Akron, O.

Fred Hagloch, a former Maryville resident, has achieved great success in Akron, Ohio primarily because of his great engineering work in the construction of a mammoth bridge there. The Akron papers recently have had several stories about Mr. Hagloch.

Mr. Hagloch left Maryville about 30 years ago. He formerly lived southwest of Maryville and for a time edited a third party paper called "The Populist." This paper was published by L. C. Gooden, now publisher of the Parnell Sentinel, who says only four or five issues of the paper were printed. Mr. Hagloch's father died here. The following is a story taken from the Akron Sunday Times:

"Who is this man Hagloch?" This question is being asked by a great many Akron people who have been reading newspaper accounts of his many and varied activities, especially his part as head of the Charter Recall club.

To tell who he is one must start at the beginning.

Fred W. Hagloch was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, the home county of Vic Donahey, governor of Ohio. As a boy he was a companion of Vic and went through school with him. They have been warm friends throughout life.

He became interested in construction work while still a youngster and decided to become an architect. In this field he has attained no little amount of success. Among some of the buildings he has constructed is a three million dollar cathedral at St. Louis, Mo., and important factory and school buildings in the vicinity of Pittsburgh, Pa., where he was also superintendent of the construction of parks, playgrounds and new buildings for the city. This was in 1907-08, during the Mayor Guthrie administration, and, according to Hagloch, Guthrie "cleaned house" at the city hall. During the process 9 men were sent to the state prison and 84 others were convicted and heavy fines imposed on them, he said.

Hagloch came to Akron about 12 years ago and has been engaged in out.

Drug, Cold Caused Death of Nurse

Companion of Shenandoah Girl Held Blameless By Jury

Shenandoah, Iowa, Feb. 27.—Morphine, exposure and freezing killed Kathryn Lukashavac, pretty Shenandoah nurse, formerly of St. Joseph, Mo., a coroner's jury decided here yesterday. Charles McMahon, her companion on the night of her death, was held blameless and was released from custody.

The coroner's jury, composed of Herb Seal, Sam Gibson and Thurl Purcell, heard the evidence this afternoon, the main feature being the report of W. J. Teeters, dean of the school of pharmacy of Iowa university, who said that a quantity of morphine was found in the nurse's stomach.

Companion Testifies

McMahon, in whose car Miss Lukashavac was found dead on the morning of Feb. 16, testified on the witness stand that he met the nurse by appointment at 8 o'clock on the evening of Feb. 15. They drove around for about an hour, he said before going to Lovers Lane, two miles south of here.

They neither ate nor drank, McMahon declared, but became drowsy and went to sleep. McMahon said that he awoke about 3 o'clock in the morning finding his hand was caught behind her. He was unable to get it loose for two hours, and then he went to the home of T. M. Spoor for help. He said that gas from a heater in the car made him sleepy.

Morphine and Cold Caused

"I don't know, but from all evidence produced it appears to be a combination," Dr. J. E. Aldrich, first witness, replied when asked what caused the nurse's death. "The woman had been ill with the so-called 'flu' and the evident presence of a surplus of morphine in the stomach and the bitterness of the cold and wind caused her death. She was scantily clad and her coat was fastened by only one button. Her skirts were above her knees, which were frozen, as were her feet and right arm, which hung out of the car. Her face and neck also were frozen."

There is no happier man than one who can laugh at the bill collector.

Return From Kansas City
Mrs. B. E. Condon and daughter, Miss Gertrude Condon, returned last night from Kansas City where they had been visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. J. W. Tompson. Mrs. Condon had been a guest at the Tompson home for more than a month and her daughter joined her last Thursday.

Those present were Misses Nellie Hall, Gladys Mendenhall, Guelia Kable, Crystal Hall, Ella Smith, Gladys Thompson, Pauline Hall, Lucile Duncan, and Pauline Thompson and Don Hall, Hiland and Thompson, Earl Wyman, Truman Shelton, Herman and Kenneth Thompson, Floyd Wyman, Shelton and Wilson Thompson, Wilfred and Welburn Thompson, Chuck Kable and the host and hostess.

Mission Study Class

Chapter four of "Building With India" was studied at last night's meeting of the Mission Study Class of the M. E. Church, South, which was held at the church. Prayer was offered by Mrs. M. E. Farrar. The many devoted workers; the imposing amount of educational work; the tasks missionaries have had of making possible, a fuller, more abundant life through economic betterment; and the great work done during the needed missions and social reform were some of the phases discussed. The ultimate aim of missionaries is to develop a world-wide society of Christ-like individuals with so many ways in which we can assist our world partner and with a missionary body of five and a half thousand to be maintained in India by Western churches. Each one of the subjects is so broad that Mrs. B. W. Loomis, leader, in touching upon them brought out much material for thought.

News From the Pleasant Valley Broadcasting Station D. No. 71

Be it known by the people of Nodaway County and other readers of the Democrat-Forum that the world is still round and that the Pleasant Valley School District No. 71 is still upon it. If you're ever 'round, why drop in and visit our school. Visitors are always welcome once and are invited to come again if they act properly the first time, otherwise they are invited any way.

School is coming along fine but we regret to say that we are going to lose two of our faithful fifteen. Phyllis and Hellen Mae Corken, both daughters of Mr. Phil Corken, who is moving from our district. We are glad that they are worthy of receiving from their school mates and teacher a high recommendation of their character and ability. They are true to their playmates, faithful at work and good at play.

Miss Marjorie Cue of New Market, Iowa, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nicholas, Jr., during Sunday and Monday of this week. She also was a visitor at the Pleasant Valley School, Monday 26.

Miss Edith Taylor of New Market, Iowa, was also a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nicholas, Jr. last Sunday.

Miss Marjorie Merriett, a pupil of the Pleasant Valley School was absent from school Monday, being afflicted by a severe cold.

Miss Phyllis Corken also was absent Monday on the account of a cold.

Miss Hellen Mae Corken spent Monday night at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Corken.

William Alexander was absent from school Monday evening. He was an actor in the Musical Comedy by the singers of the Methodist Church of Burlington Junction. The title of the comedy was, "Gypsy Rovers."

Lane Westfall was absent from school last Thursday owing to a severe cold.

Prizes will be awarded to the pupils of the sixth grade spelling class for headmarks at the end of the week. The reason for the awarding at this time is that one of the members, Hellen Mae Corken, is moving from our district. The entire class will be awarded prizes, for they all have the same number of head marks. Those being in the class are Dorothy Dalbey, Robert Nicholas, Hellen Mae Corken, Lee Stafford and Lane Westfall.

Mr. Strader, teacher of the Pleasant Valley school, was a visitor at the White Lily School last Friday. The White Lily School is four miles northeast of Clearmont and is taught by Mr. Conjar or "Feathers" as his friends call him.

Mr. and Mrs. Spanos and son, Donald, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Spanos' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Myrick of Burlington Junction. Sunday evening they all motored down to the city of Maryville and back.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Morehead spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Myrick.

Mr. Courtney, who is the depot agent for the Wabash R. R. Co. at Burlington Junction has returned to his home in Brunswick, Mo. for a few days recuperation. Mr. Frayer of Stanberry is taking his place during his absence.

Said Mike to Pat
Have you heard the story
Of the dog and the cat
No answered Pat

Said Mike to Pat
There was a terrible fight
Tween the dog and the cat
Go on said Pat
I knew that
For it was my dog
That fought your cat.

It was spittly spat
Tween the dog and the cat
But Pat hit Mike
And Mike hit Pat
And so ended their chat.

Brig.-Gen. Hines to Head Vets' Bureau

Washington, Feb. 27.—Brig. Gen. Frank Hines, formerly chief of transportation of the American expeditionary forces, has been selected by President Harding to succeed Col. Charles B. Forbes as director of the veterans' bureau. It was officially announced at the White House this afternoon.

Every spoonful of Kellogg's Bran helps free you from toxic poisons!

Constipation is largely responsible for auto-intoxication that leads to dangerous diseases unless it is not only checked but permanently relieved. Constipation, in fact, is the basis of a majority of human ailments which could be headed off if people would only help rid themselves of this serious, health-undermining condition, which can be easily done.

Constipation must be fought to a finish—not with pills and cathartics, which are dangerous to the delicate membranes of the intestines and temporary at best—but with nature's greatest cereal health food—Bran—Kellogg's Bran, which is as delicious as it is beneficial.

Kellogg's Bran is wonderful in its work because it is ALL BRAN. And, to get permanent relief, ALL BRAN is a necessity, for it is the "bulk" of Kellogg's Bran that sweeps and purifies, ridding the system of poisons and bringing conditions to normal. Eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases—and we guarantee that you will get relief permanently and naturally.

Kellogg's Bran is delicious. You do not have to learn to like it. Eat it as a cereal or sprinkle on or mix with hot or cold cereals. Or, cook it with hot cereals, allowing two tablespoonfuls for each person. Kellogg's makes wonderful muffins, griddle cakes, mince bread, macaroons, etc. Recipes on package.

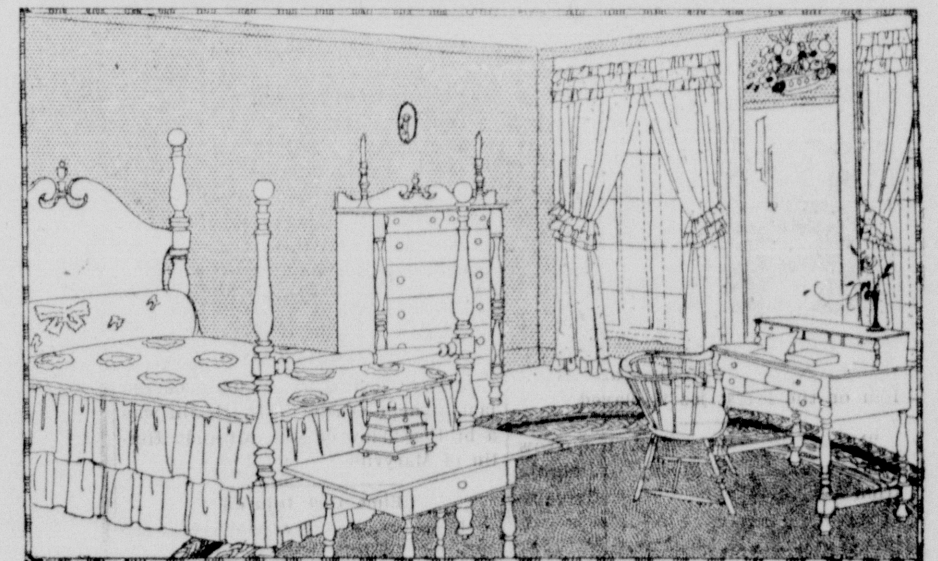

Leading hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

MRS. HICKEY SO WEAK COULD HARDLY STAND

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Worcester, Mass. — "I had some trouble caused by a female weakness and got so run-down and weak from it that I could hardly stand or walk across the floor. The doctor gave me all kinds of pills, but nothing helped me. I happened to meet a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I thought I would try it. After taking it a week I began to improve, and now I feel fine and am doing all of my housework, including washing, sewing and house cleaning. I have recommended your medicine to my friends, and I am willing for you to use this letter as a testimonial, as I would like to help any one suffering the way I did from such a weakness." — Mrs. DELIA HICKEY, 4 S. Press Generally Favors International Court Plan As 'Bowling To Inevitable'

New York, Feb. 27.—Editorial comment by Eastern newspapers on President Harding's proposal that the United States join the International Court of Justice, organized under the League of Nations, follows:

New York Herald, Independent Republican: Beaten in his long personal fight for the ship subsidy bill as the President obviously is, the New York Herald wonders why he has deliberately invited another inevitable defeat in the very closing hours of the Congress by a personal appeal to the Senate for its consent to our joining the Court of International Justice.

On the face of it this looks more like a four or five months' job than it does a four or five days' job. The Democrats found some comfort in it and gleefully asserted that it was a move on the part of the President to get America into the League of Nations through the back door. But they, like the Republicans attached no importance to it as a measure to be considered by the dying Congress. Anything that has to do with the League of Nations and particularly a thing of its own creation, will hardly have the flavor that appeals to the Republican forces, which, in one of the most desperate fights of Congress in all our history, rejected this same League of Nations.

New York Tribune, Republican: President Harding's invitation is in line with American conviction and policy. The Republican party demanded an "association based upon international justice" and providing methods "which shall maintain the rule of public right by the development of law and the decision of impartial courts." The United States now has an opportunity to enter such a judicial association for world peace. That is the true approach to the arbitration and composition of international disputes and to the creation of a body of world law restraining national aggressions. This permanent court offers the substance of international justice, while the league's political machinery offers only its shadow. American principles will be vindicated and a long step toward world security will be taken if the Senate joins the President in making the United States a partner in full standing in the beneficent work of the permanent court.

New York World, Independent Democrat:—In urging consent to adhesion of the United States to the special protocol establishing the Permanent Court of International Justice, President Harding can hardly expect that affirmative action would be taken by the Senate in the session now drawing to a close. His recommendation is rather a test of public opinion with a view to possible developments in the future.

In thus trying out the general reaction to a suggested partial association in world problems, Mr. Harding can hardly be accused of haste or recklessness. The United States was a leader in the establishment of the old Hague tribunal a full generation ago. In establishing the present court an American, Elihu Root, former Senator and Secretary of State, played a leading part. Another American, John Bassett Moore, like Mr. Root, well versed in the work of the State Department, is setting a cap-stone to the work of his predecessors.

Neither the President nor Secretary Hughes, whose letter accompanies the message, fails to stress the freedom from entangling alliances which we could maintain while adhering to the protocol establishing the court. Mr. Harding may still think, as he did during his first year in office, that his proposed "Association" of Nations, might take the form of "engaging under the existing league." But he is careful to point out that "we may fully adhere and participate" in the court "and remain wholly free from any legal relation to the league (or nations) or assumption of obligation under the covenant of the league." Mr. Hughes, one of the 31 Republicans who assured us in 1920 that the road to membership in the league lay through Harding's victory at the polls, now defines the special "character" of the court and recommends a reservation to adhesion "shall not be taken to involve any legal relation on the part of the United States to the league of Nations" or any assumption of obligations under the covenant of the league. This is quite true. But such statements emphasizing theoretical possibilities of continued detachment are less eloquent than the fact of the suggestion itself which represents President and Secretary as feebly kicking and struggling in the grip of the inevitable and making a virtue of necessity in that they are only yielding, as Senator Hitchcock puts it, on the installment plan. As he irrepressible had "day of the administration, Ambassador Harvey blurts out a frank admission: "I was so glad that we were out of the mess as England would be to get out of it. But England can't get out, and we shall probably have to get in. We know it. We have no illusions about it."

If the administration has no illusions about the possibility of continued aloofness, if the country has none, if Senators who think see no avenue of escape from destiny, Mr. Harding surely would not have been accused of "exceeding the speed limit" if he had earlier pursued a bolder course and given a bankrupt and despairing old world prompt and firm assurance that the great republic which helped so mightily to win the war would help to solve the problems of peace. The emergency demands leadership, not merely drifting with the tide, with now and then a timid stroke toward shore and safety.

But better late than never. Better a cautious approach to participation in world problems that we cannot finally escape them now at all. Certainly the United States should participate in the permanent Court of International Justice. Much more than that, we should and must do in the end if we would avoid the perils of the general confusion; but so far as it goes, Mr. Harding's proposal is sound and just. It should be backed with power and authority by public opinion. It should be put into effect by positive action. In itself considered, and as promise and prelude to wider activities, it is a development of the first importance.

New York Times, Independent Democrat: It will be noticed that the letter of Secretary Hughes setting forth the program was dated Feb. 17. If the President had at once gone to the Senate with his request for its adoption and not waited a week in the hopeless fight for the ship subsidy bill, the chances of getting what he desires would be brighter. Both he and Secretary Hughes continue to betray in regard to the League of Nations, a nervous dread. He (Secretary Hughes) finds it necessary to employ all his skill in lawyerlike dissection to persuade the Senate that his country can join the court without having any "legal relation" to the League of Nations. These and other like criticisms might be urged and the administration might be charged with having swung late and half-shamed to an international policy which it had previously rejected as un-American. But why stick in the bark after the fashion now? We are getting the essentials, and it would be both ungenerous and foolish to hoggle over mere matters of form.

The administration is bowing to the inevitable. The Senate ought to give its consent before the session ends.

New York Staats-Zeitung: The request of President Harding to the Senate is the echo of the speech of the British Prime Minister, Bonar Law. The demand that our Government shall take some step to avoid a new world war, such as is being prepared by the almost universally condemned advance of the French into the Ruhr, has been in recent months more often and more stormily voiced, abroad as well as at home, so that they apparently come to the view in Washington that something must happen which at least creates the appearance of being busy with the international situation. But if the Government has departed from its original intention of creating a substitute for the League because it, as unfortunately has been the case in many other things, has again missed the connection, then it may, so far as the matter can be judged, be the best thing if we attach ourselves to the international court. We hope the matter will not be upset.

Philadelphia Inquirer, Republican: President Harding has taken a step which ought to be welcomed by every sane and intelligent citizen of the United States.

The step brings us nearer world relations. Slowly—very slowly—we are emerging from the fog which has settled over the United States ever since drafting of the Versailles document. The league has done a splendid thing in organizing the international court. We should accept that work with enthusiasm and take our part in it.

Pittsburg Gazette-Times, Republican:

In the few remaining days of the present session it is scarcely probable that the Senate will take action on ratification of the protocol by which the United States might obtain membership in the permanent Court of International Justice. It is possible that Mr. Harding does not expect such prompt action. But the issue is joined. Because the court is a creation of the League of Nations does not in any way justify the inference which some have drawn that this movement is a step in the direction of membership in the League of Nations, as plainly as language can state it.

DELAY IN C. G. W. CHANGE

Details Could Not Be Worked Out. So New Schedule Will Go Into Effect Next Sunday

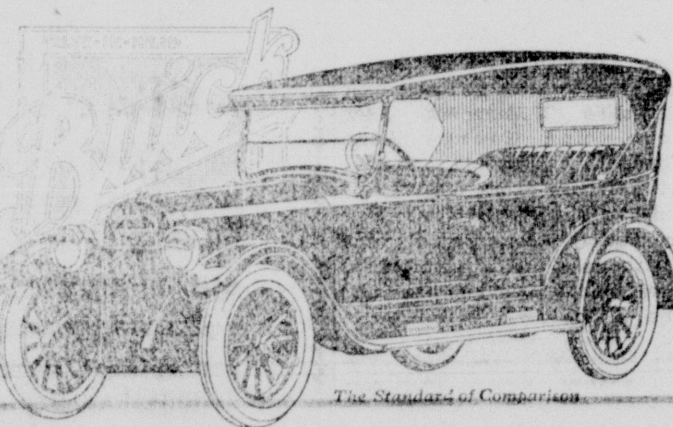

On account of the details not having been worked out for the new Chicago Great Western schedule, which was to have gone into effect yesterday, under the order of the state public service commission, another week has been allowed and the schedule will go into effect next Sunday. If there are other unforeseen delays a few days longer may be necessary.

As has been explained the new schedule will include motor car service between Shannon City, Iowa, and St. Joseph, ninety-two miles. The car will leave Shannon City each morning at 6:30 o'clock and arrive here at 10 o'clock, and will leave here at 3:15 p. m. Stops will be made at every station. Under the new schedule St. Joseph will be the southern terminus for trains Nos. 5 and 54, which now run from Des Moines to Kansas City. These two trains will be abandoned between here and Kansas City.

Move to New Home in March

Mrs. Nannie Moore and son, Everett, will move about March 15 to their farm, five and a half miles south of Maryville, which they recently purchased from Albert Carr. A new frame house, which is being erected, will be completed about that time. Mrs. Moore's residence on East Third street has been sold to Mrs. J. L. Shockley, who recently returned from Chehalis, Washington.

Convenient to Care For and to Drive

It's a real pleasure to own a Buick not only because of its dependable performance, but also because Buick has so many conveniences that simplify its care and operation.

A few moments will reveal exactly how every day maintenance of Buick cars is quickly, easily, and cleanly done.

The variety of these features and the comfort that they provide to the owner can be fully appreciated only by personal inspection of the 1923 models.

Assaulted Body of 6 Year Old Girl Found

Wylie Morgan Confessed Slayer Led To Place Where Body Was Hidden —Mob Violence Feared

Philadelphia, Feb. 27—With the finding of the body of 6-year old Lillian Gilmore, in a tree stump hole on an icy creek, near Croydon, Pa., last night, a legal battle had developed today between the Philadelphia and Bucks County authorities over Wylie Morgan, 39, confessed slayer of the girl. Dorothy Gilmore, the dead girl's 4-year old sister, who was also along in the motor car, was brought into Morgan's cell in an effort to break his indifference. Finally he broke down in his denial and said:

"Well hear goes, the worst I can get is the electric chair. I had to put the kid somewhere. She croaked after I assaulted her. Say, anybody got a cigarette?"

Morgan was then taken to the scene of the tragedy and pushed along the creek. He remained silent for some time then finally exclaimed: "There's the hole." A short search revealed the tiny body, beaten and bruised. Threats of mob violence have been made today against Morgan, and all effort to rush him to trial is being made.

Mrs. J. C. Trout of Tarkio, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Braniger, and Dr. Braniger, for a week, returned home yesterday morning.

New Hampshire Law
Would Compel 8 Hrs.
Sleep for Everyone

Concord, N. H.—When old-timers throughout New Hampshire heard that George L. Sibley had been elected to another term in the house of representatives from Manchester, they said at once: "That means a lively session."

In the last hour rush of introduction most measures are read by the clerks by their title only, but Mr. Sibley insisted on his constitutional right to have his bills read in full, and his fellow members of the house were glad he did. They proved a welcome change and relief from the steady grind of taxation, fish and game, highway and motor car bills.

Of the dozen bills bearing Mr. Sibley's name as author that which received the heartiest welcome was "An Act to Secure a Minimum of Eight Hours of Sleep for Everyone."

"Eight out of each twenty-four hours shall be the minimum amount of time for sleep," it provides, with the penalty that "failure to observe this injunction shall be sufficient ground for the charge of negligence in case of accident or of carelessness in the case of sickness."

Before some of the members had digested this dose Mr. Sibley came to bat again with a law regulating marriage so that "no man shall marry his father's sister, mother's sister, father's widow, wife's mother, daughter, wife's daughter, son's widow, sister, son's son's widow, daughter's son's widow, brother's daughter or sister's daughter."

The reading clerk found this measure a "Sister Susie" tongue-twister, so Mr. Sibley took pity on him and introduced next a comparatively simple little bill giving street railway employees seven days' vacation with pay.

Then he sought to limit Ku Klux Klan activities by prohibiting the use of bed sheets as ceremonial robes; took an interest in the public health by legislating against the practice of repapering rooms without removing the first coat of paper, and promoted "safety first" by proposing regulations for scaffolds erected for workmen on outside jobs.

It is the one object of Mr. Sibley's life, he says—to make the world a better place to live in and to make happier as many as possible of those who live in it.

Miss Dora Romasser Hurt in Kansas City When Auto Skids into Street Car

Miss Dora Romasser of Kansas City, sister of Augustus Romasser of Maryville and well known here, was bruised severely yesterday morning when a skidding motor car in which she was riding crashed into a street car. Miss Romasser was riding to work with five other passengers when the accident occurred. The head-on collision was caused by the slippery pavement, which caused the automobile to skid as it attempted to pass in front of the street car. Miss Romasser's injuries consisted of an injured hip and painful body bruises and one kidney was also torn loose. She was removed in an ambulance to the home of her sister, Mrs. George Tunstall, 223 East Thirtieth street, and according to a telephone message this morning she passed a fairly restful night. She is under the influence of an opiate and has been suffering greatly.

Housekeeper Held
As Murder Witness

New York, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Anna Buzzi, "housekeeper" for Frederick Snyder, contractor, whose body was found in his auto at a lonely spot near Claussen Point yesterday, was locked up today under orders from District Attorney Blennan, as a material witness in the murder.

It was learned today that Snyder and his housekeeper had quarreled occasionally. A nephew of the slain man and some business associates, told of frequent disagreements, and said that Mrs. Buzzi was of a high-strung temperament.

A police matron grilled Mrs. Buzzi all night. Dr. Paul Kennett, who performed the autopsy, was certain that Snyder had been murdered by someone sitting beside him in the car. He had a bullet wound behind his right ear and another in the back of his head. A farmer, living near, told police that he heard shots and saw the machine come to a stop. Then he said, he saw a blond woman, fashionably dressed, running away from the machine.

Mrs. Buzzi is a handsome woman about 30 years old, and according to the police had lived with Snyder since her husband divorced her about ten years ago. Her name was given as Mrs. Snyder when "Booked on the blatter."

She was arrested in his apartment and denied any knowledge of his death.

Gardner Not to Run
For Governor Again

Predicts Democratic Victory But He Believes Honors Should Be Distributed

Jefferson City, Mo., February 27.—Omar D. Gray of Sturgeon, who was State Oil Inspector during the administration of former Governor Gardner, in a recent issue of the Sturgeon Leader of which he is the editor, had the following to say about Gardner and the governorship in 1924.

"And now for a little secret. We talked plainly to Governor Gardner about the desire of the people, regardless of party affiliations, to have him return to Jefferson City and serve them as governor again, and we believe we violate no confidence when we say that we do not believe he can be induced to run again. The Governor explained to us that when he returned to St. Louis he had to either work or loaf, that he had worked since he was 12 years old and could not loaf, so he took his old job back again and has it now, and does not feel that he can leave it. He said he realized the people had a right to demand service of all citizens—this obligation he felt he had discharged. In other words, he said: 'I feel that I have served my time.'"

"I have two boys to get into business and a daughter to educate, and business and family obligations resting upon me."

"I think next year will be a democratic year and there are many democrats who could be elected Governor of this state, and I think the honors should be passed around."

Will Put Mail
Only in Boxes

Rule That Receptacles Must Be Provided Will Be Rigidly Enforced

The post office has received information and directions that after March 1, all business places or residences will be required to be equipped with mail receptacles or slots cut in doors to receive mail deliveries by city letter carriers.

"Last August," says a statement issued by the local post office "a widespread campaign was inaugurated by the Postoffice Department to impress the public with the necessity of providing some way to stop the delays in delivery of mail by city carriers owing to the rule that mail should not be left at a business house or residence unprotected. Many losses occurring after actual delivery were traced to the lack of a proper place to deposit mail when the householder was away from home."

"The rule was, and is, that such mail should not be delivered but returned to the postoffice to be taken out on a following trip. However, the carriers, very often knowing that the mail was important and desiring to save the patrons inconvenience and possible loss, 'took a chance' and left the mail in the safest place possible. However, March 1, the rule is made positive and disciplinary on the carrier, and mail will not be left unless receptacles are provided. There is one exception to the rule as to enforcement, in that the patron will be allowed to state his reason for not complying and such reasons must be referred to Washington for consideration."

"It is not the purpose of the Post-office Department to deprive anyone of the use of the mails, but rather to perfect an efficient system so that all may enjoy more expeditious services and carriers be relieved of a constant source of irritation and proper safeguarding of the mails."

"Mails placed in receptacles at your residence are now covered by the same law applicable to mails in street letter boxes. Interference or depredation of such mails is punishable by Federal law. It seems from every angle that the rule is just and in no way irksome to any resident and will tend to throw the protection of the federal law to a part of the system of delivery that was formerly unprotected."

DR. CHILTON OF ST. JOSEPH TO MAKE TRIP TO HOLY LAND

Dr. C. M. Chilton, pastor of the Christian Church of St. Joseph, and well known in Maryville, having been pastor of the Christian Church here at one time, will make a trip to the Holy Land this summer. The St.

Joseph News-Press had the following: Next Sunday will mark the completion of twenty-five years of service by Dr. C. M. Chilton as pastor of the First Christian Church, Tenth and Faraon streets. At the morning service Sunday the congregation voted to celebrate the quarter-centennial next Sunday, and efforts will be made to have every member of the church present who can possibly be there. The congregation also decided that it would further show its appreciation of Doctor Chilton's long service by granting him a vacation of sixty or ninety days, and sending him on a tour of Europe and the Holy Land this summer. The date of his departure has not yet been decided, and will be left to his pleasure, and the details are yet to be arranged. Doctor Chilton holds the record for length of service as pastor of a St. Joseph church.

Economy a Universal Principle

Economy has been preached as a cardinal virtue to every succeeding generation. Back in the Stone Age a hoary ancestor walked miles to a cave dweller who bartered some coveted article for one skin instead of the two demanded by the neighbor tradesman.

Economy is a principle held in common by the people of all nations.

Economy is the paramount principle of our merchandising throughout our chain of 371 Department Stores, and has been during our 21 years of service to the public.

Every purchase in our Stores involves a saving to the purchaser, and these savings, accruing year after year, make for the soundest kind of economy.
